

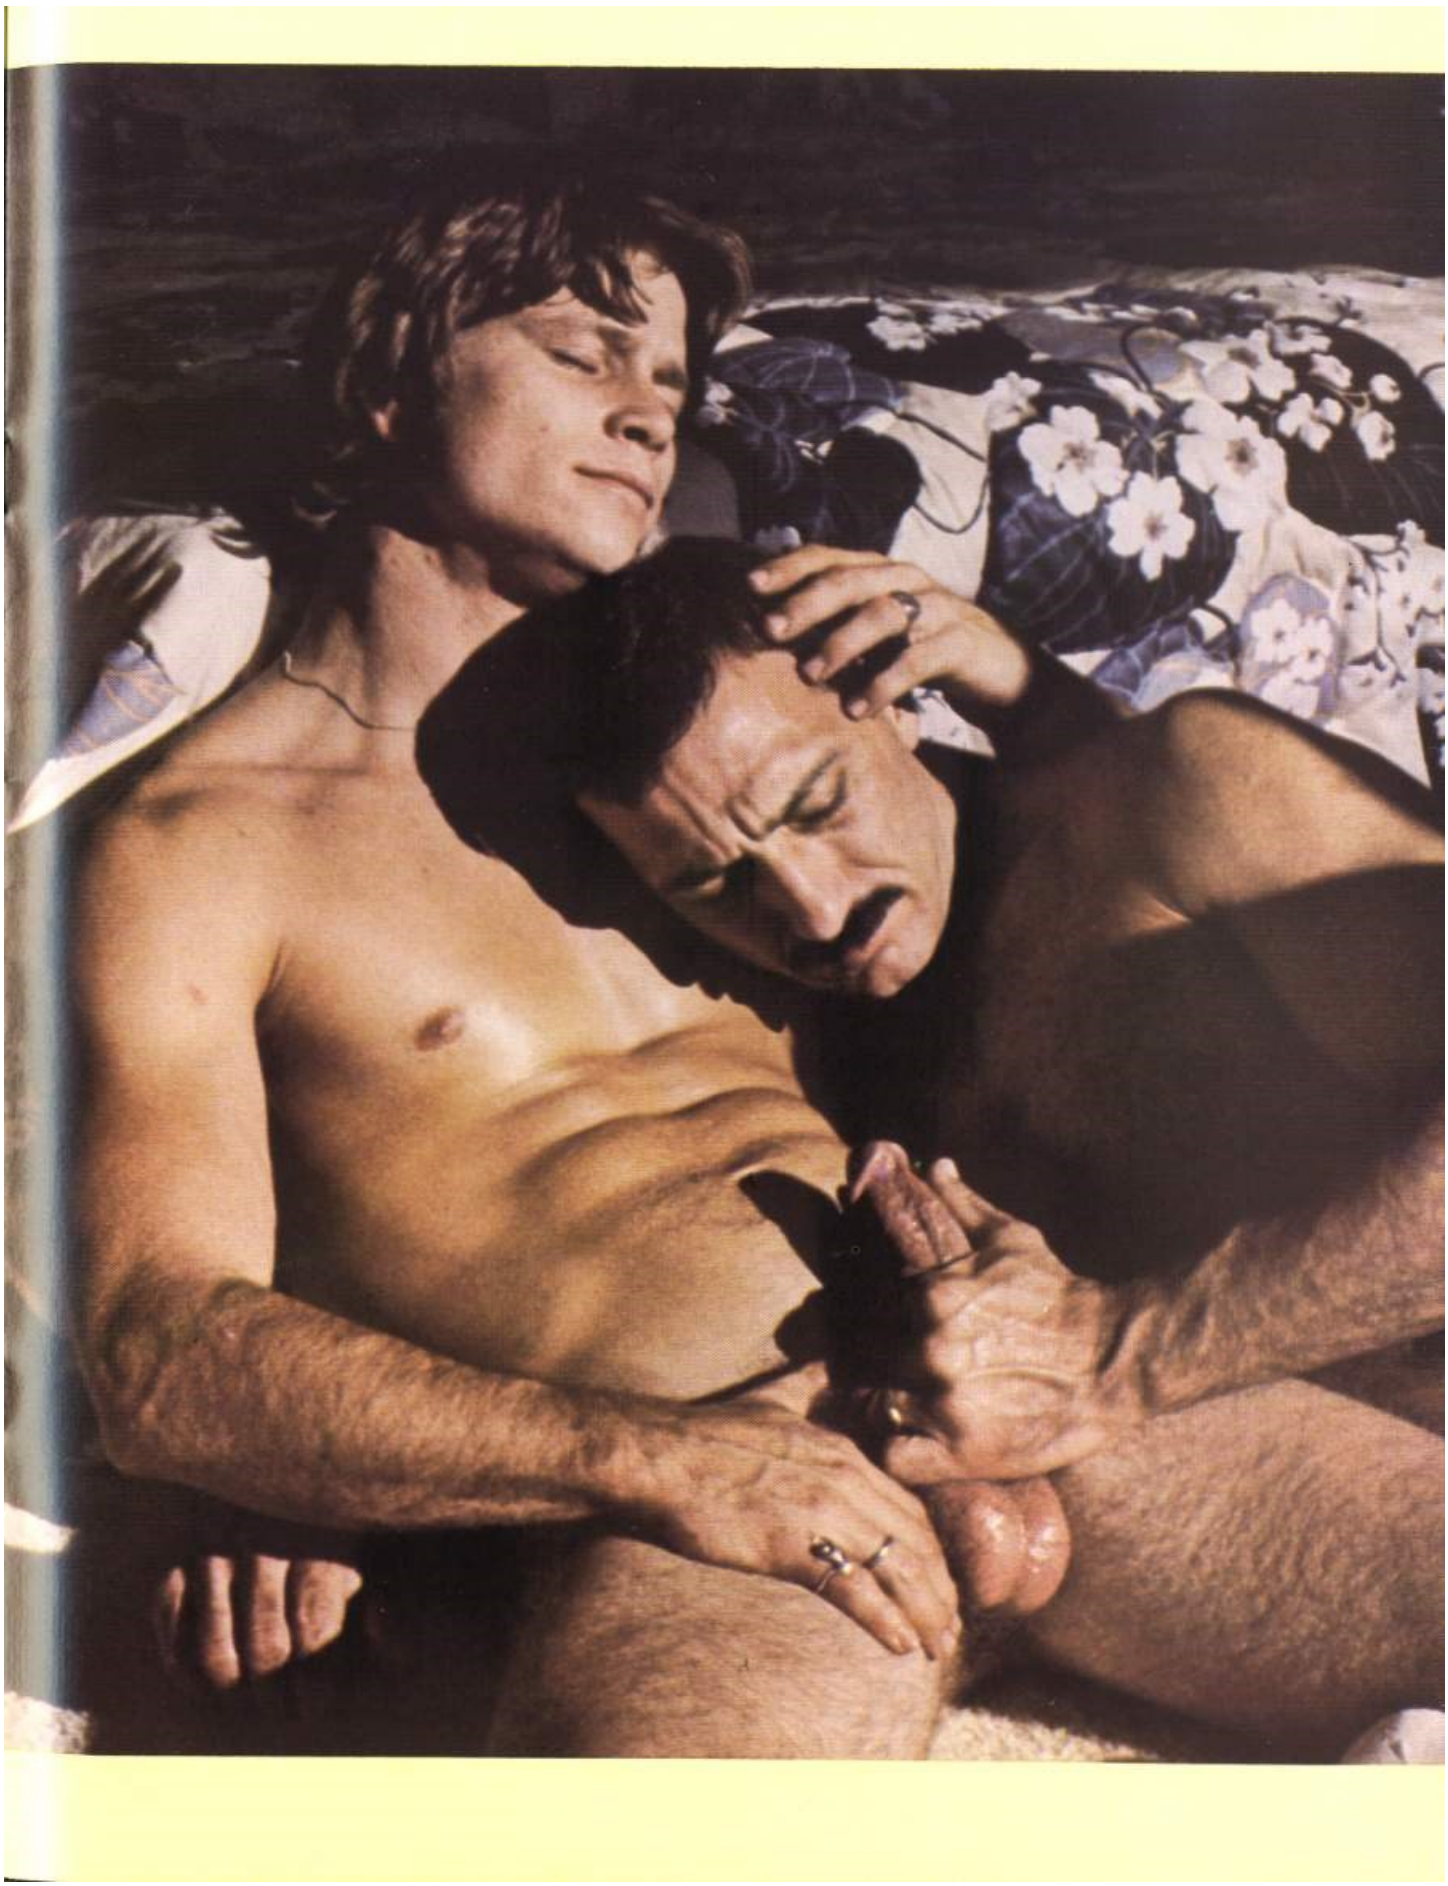
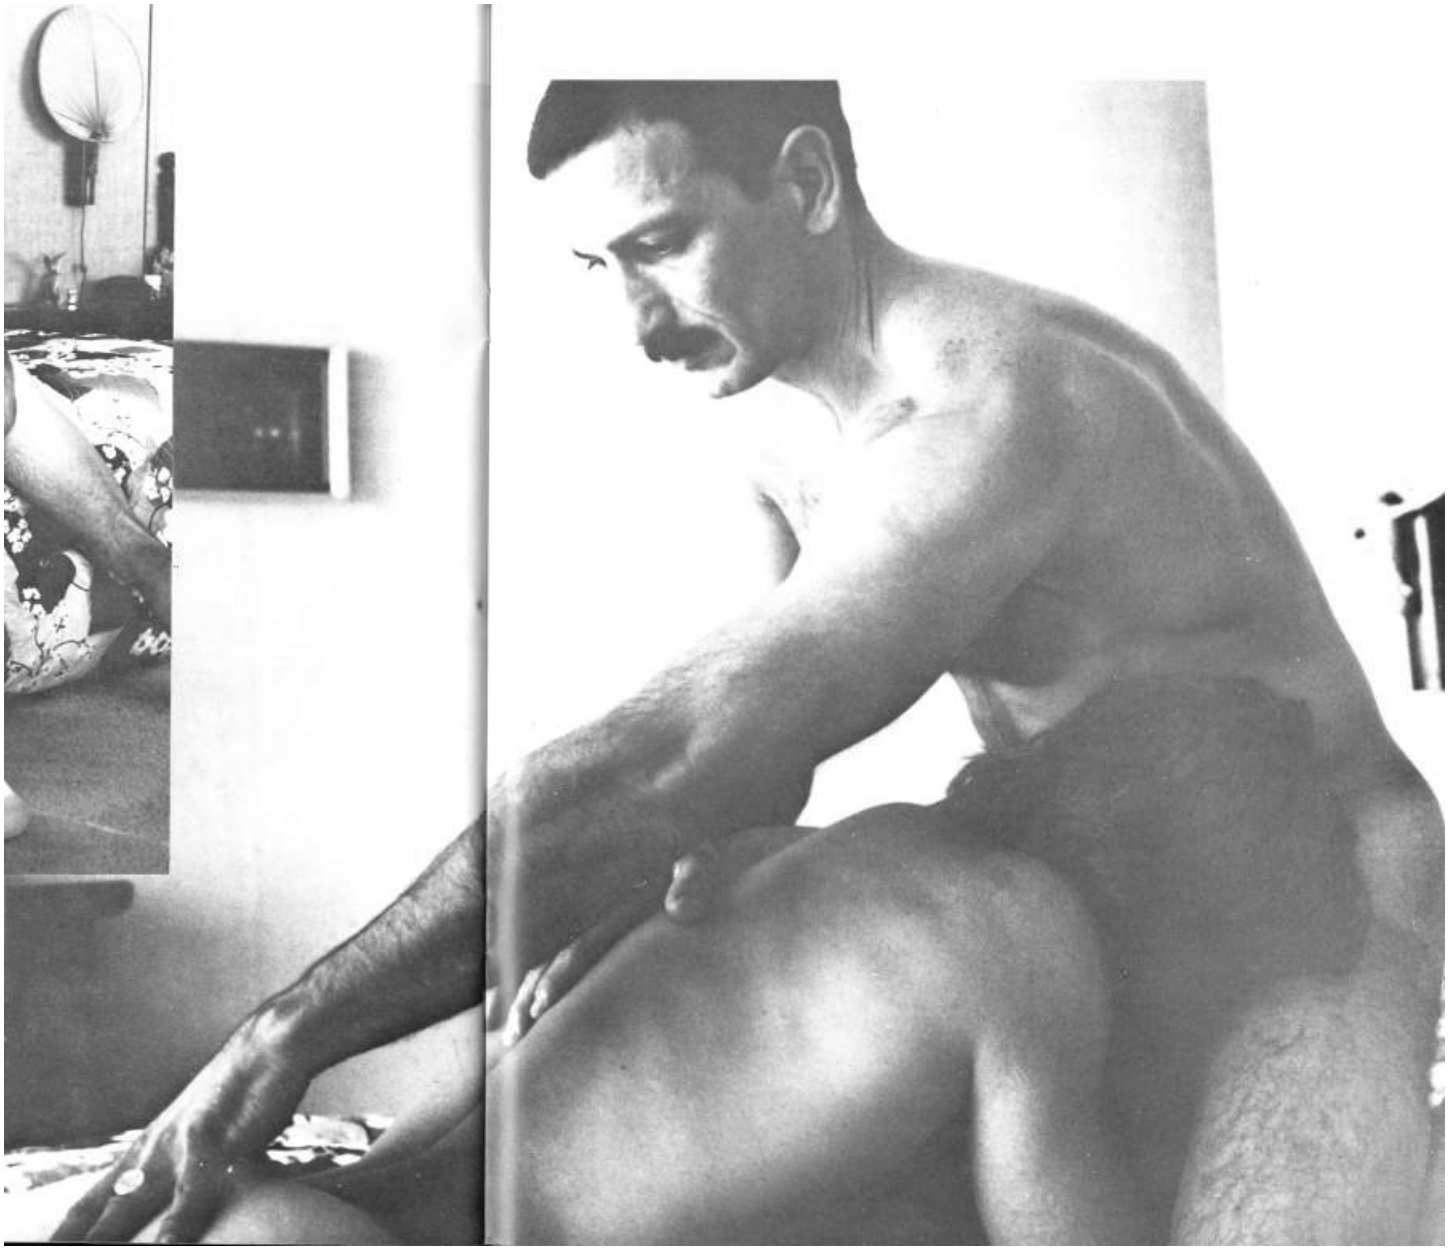
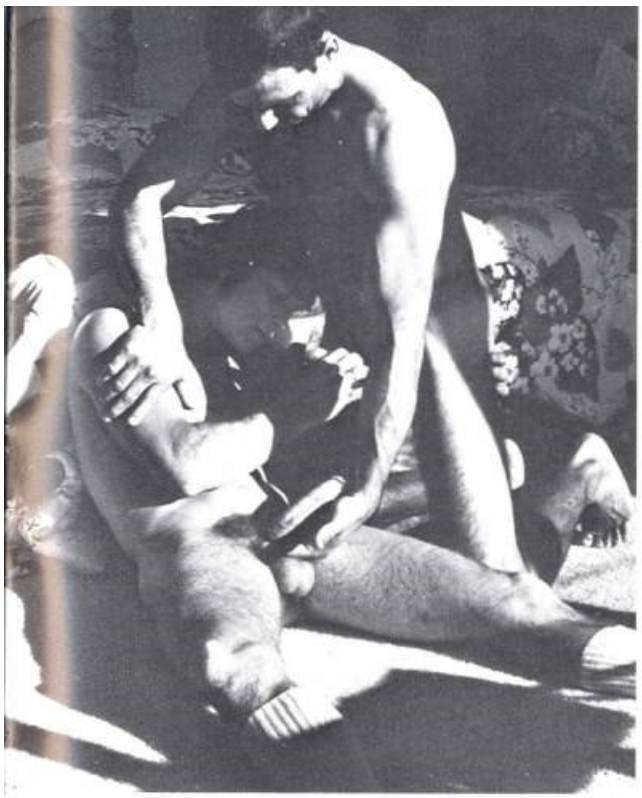
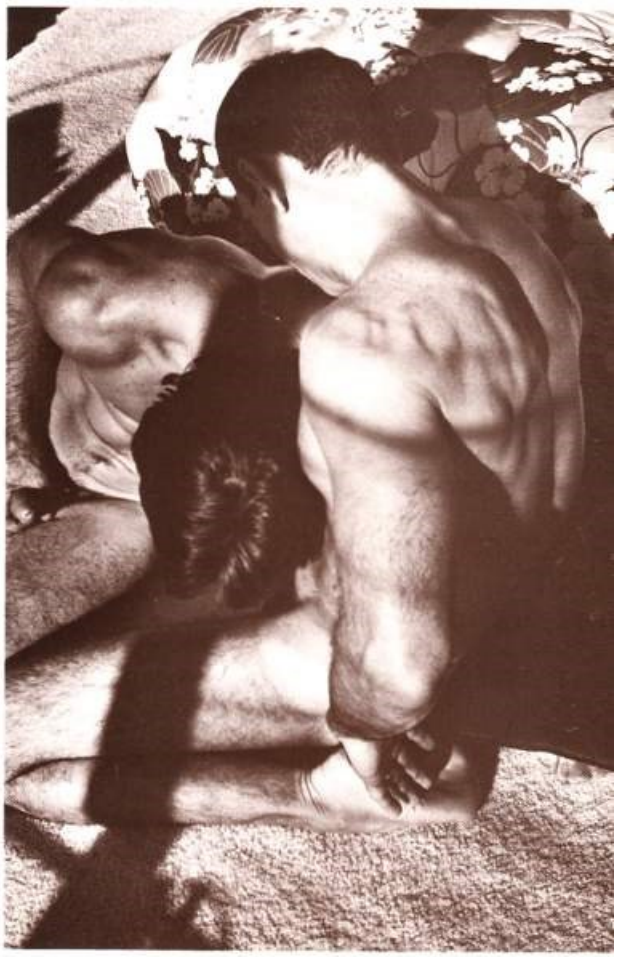
If Lee looks a bit apprehensive and shy at first, you'll have to admit he has something to be nervous about. What Big Dan wants, Big Dan usually gets. And in this case, it's a small brown hole that Lee has only seen in the mirror. But, Big Dan is smart enough not to make the big plunge immediately, so he plays the game. As you can see, it works and although Lee walked a little funny afterwards, we hear he's ready for another "Adventure."

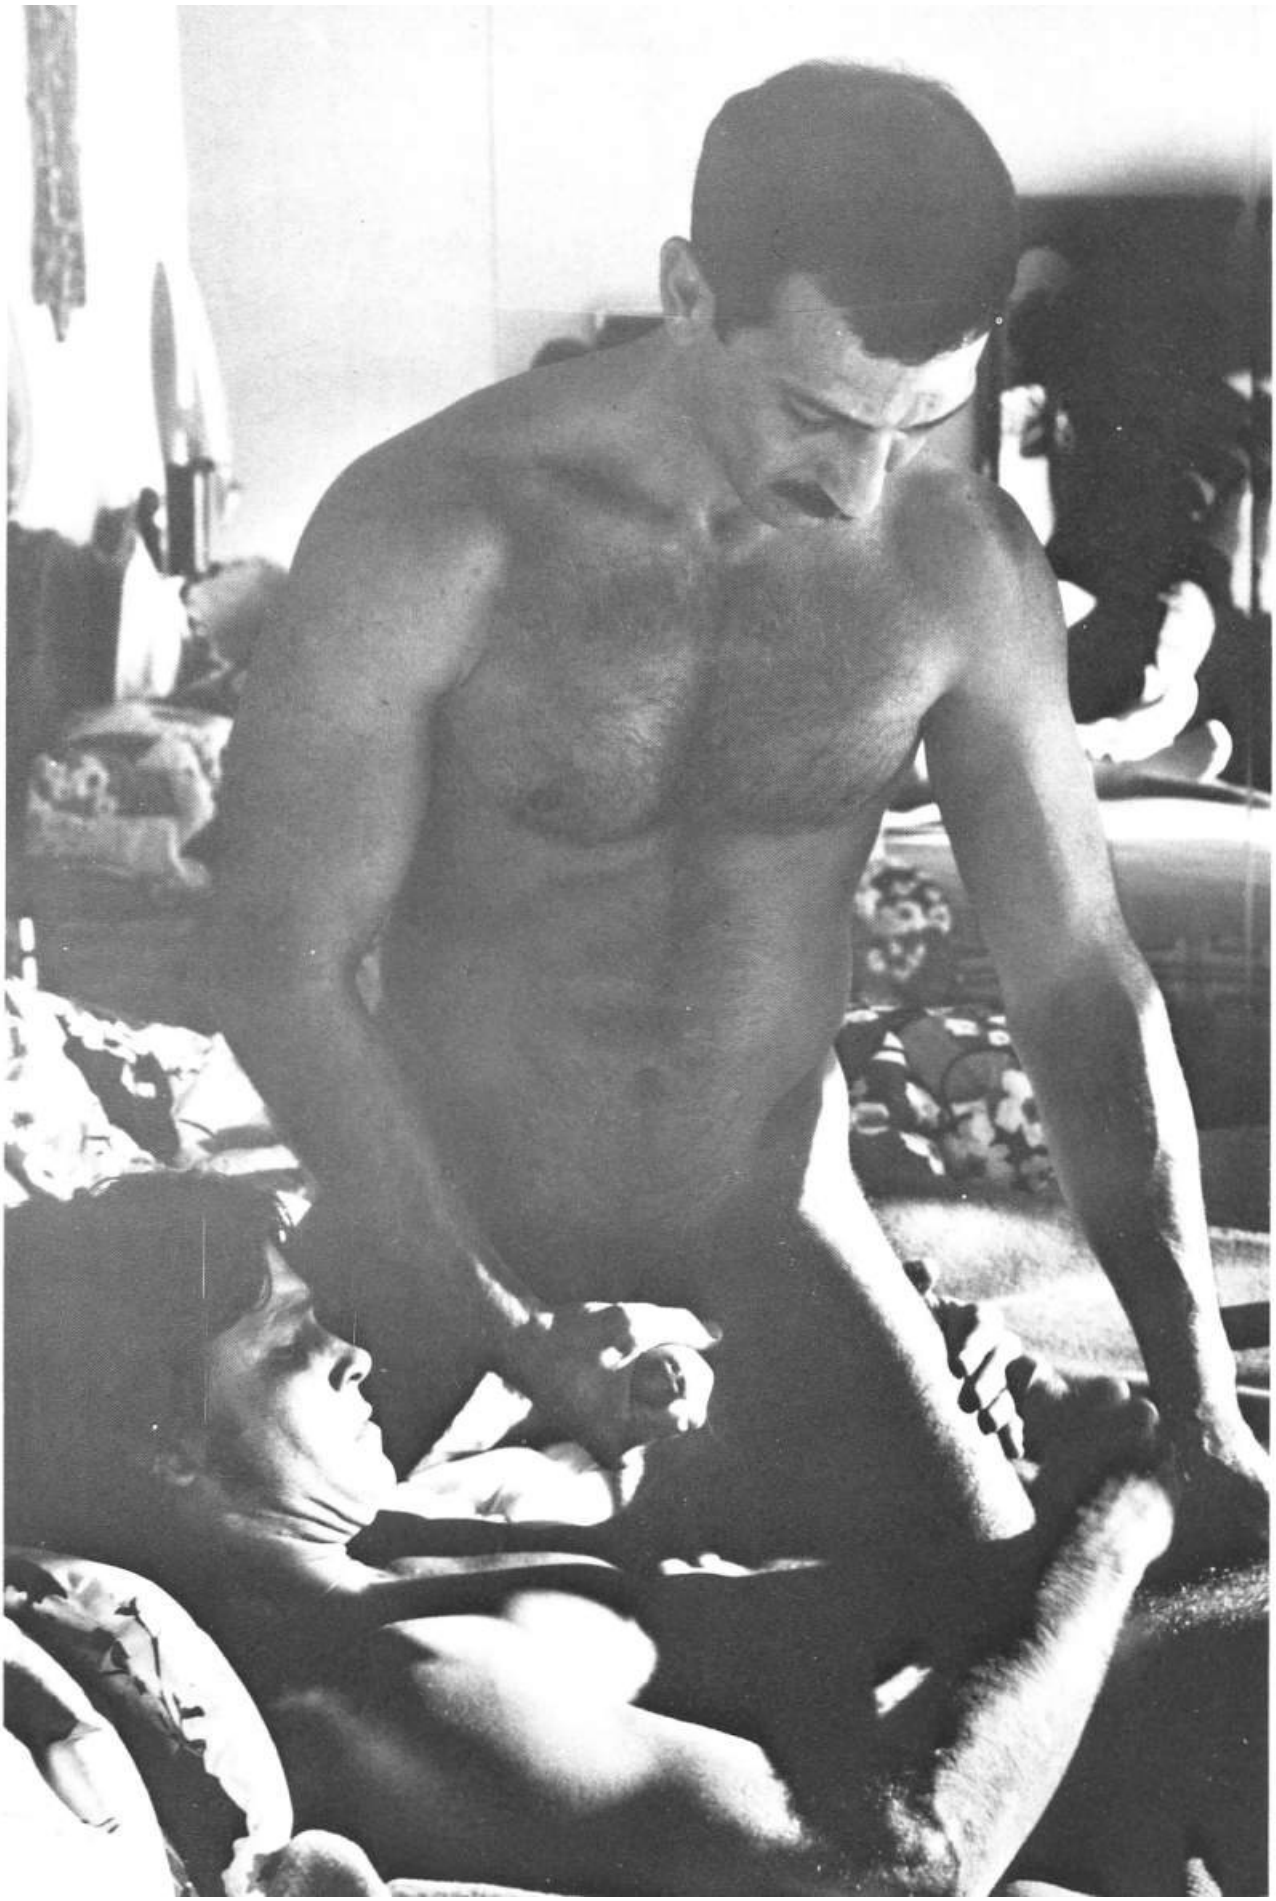
DAN = LEE

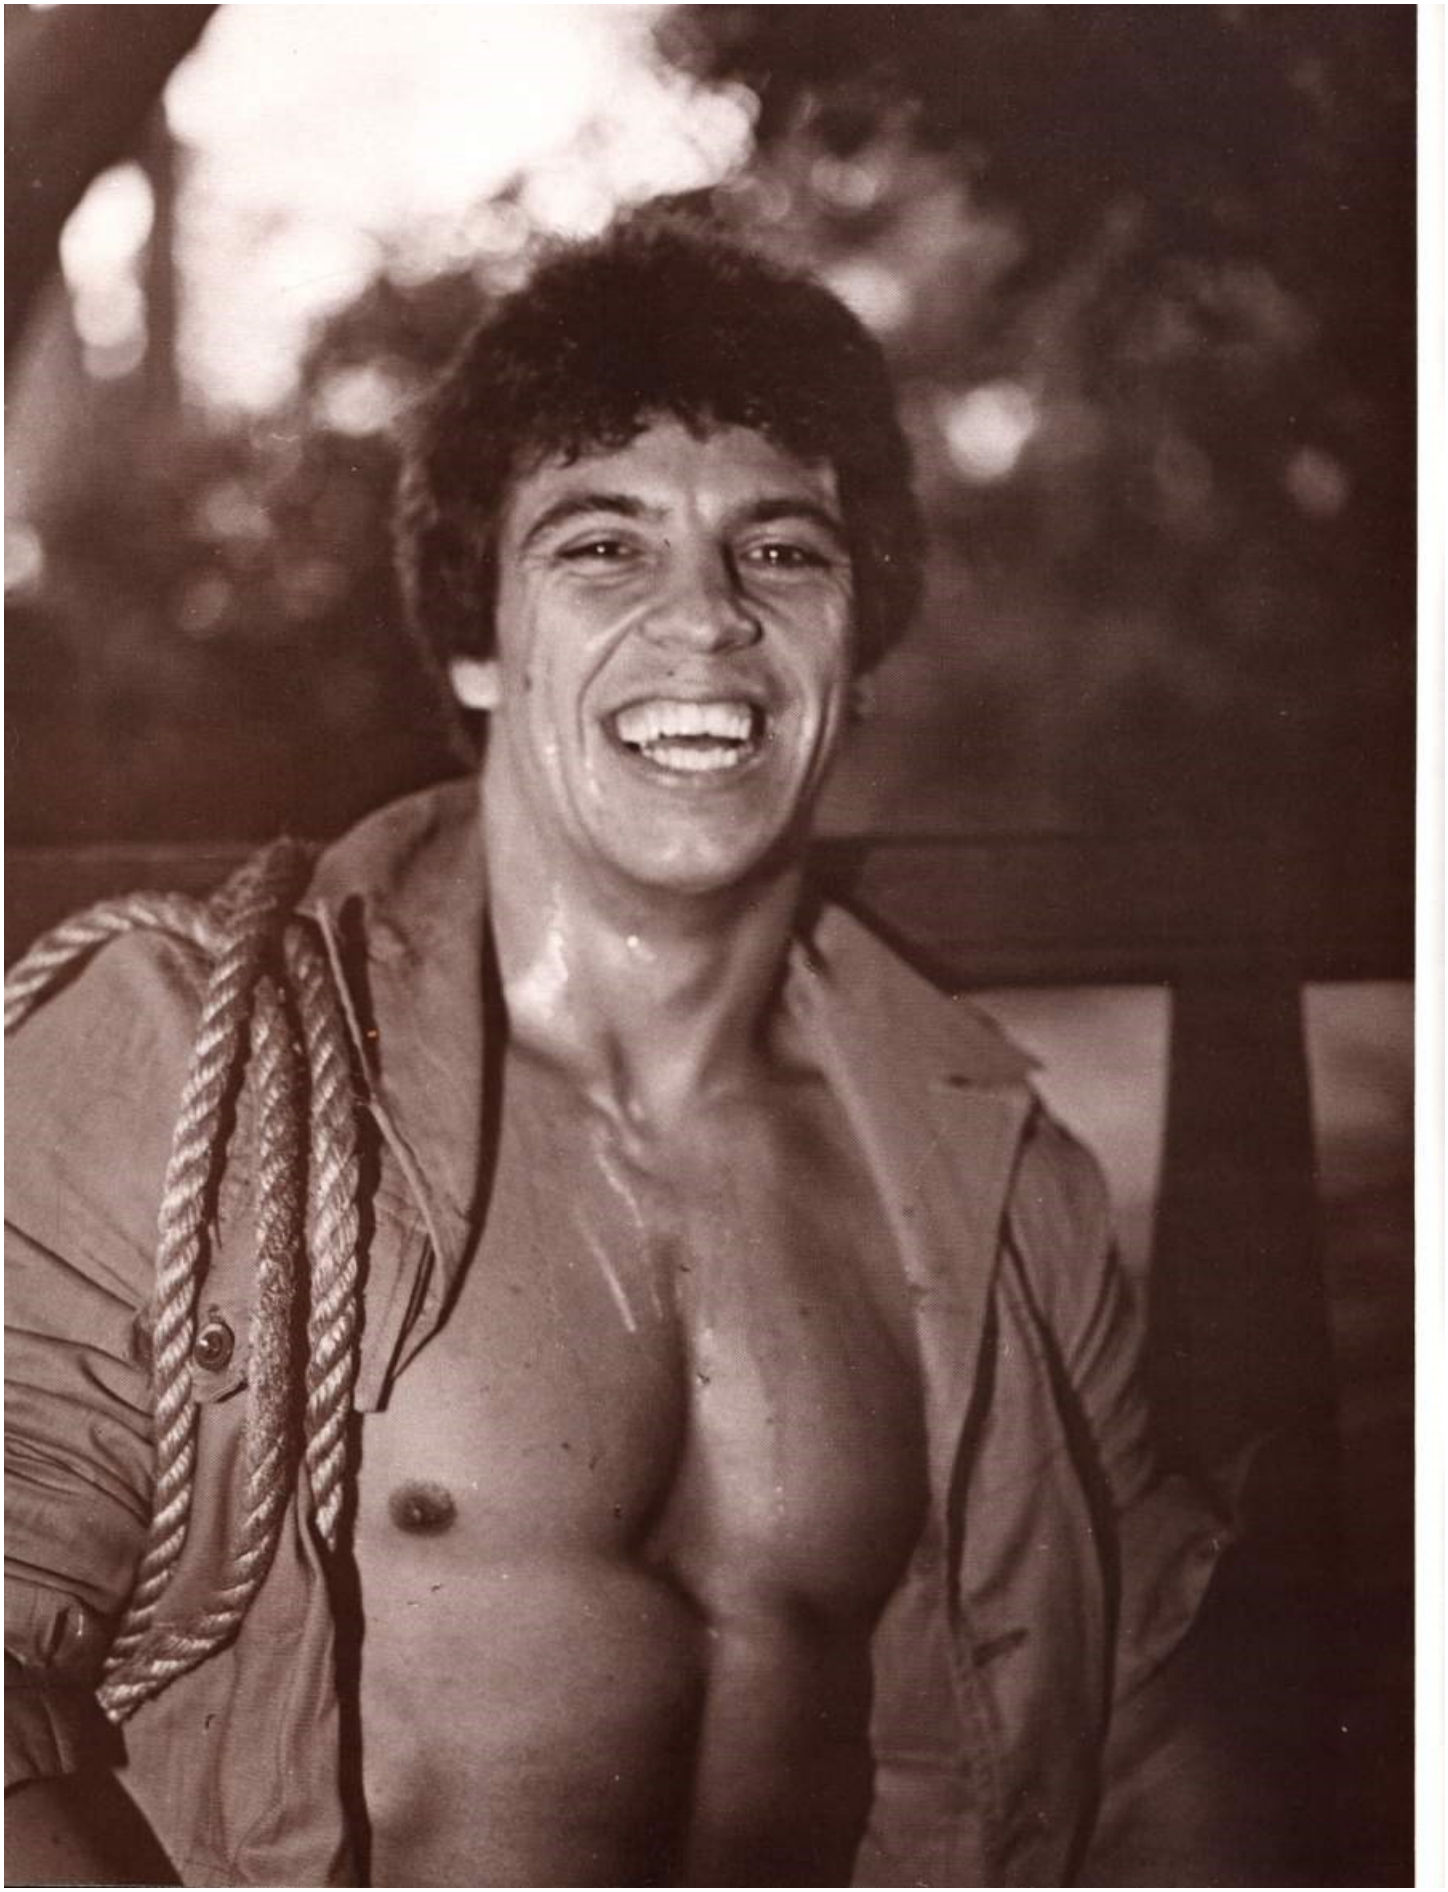


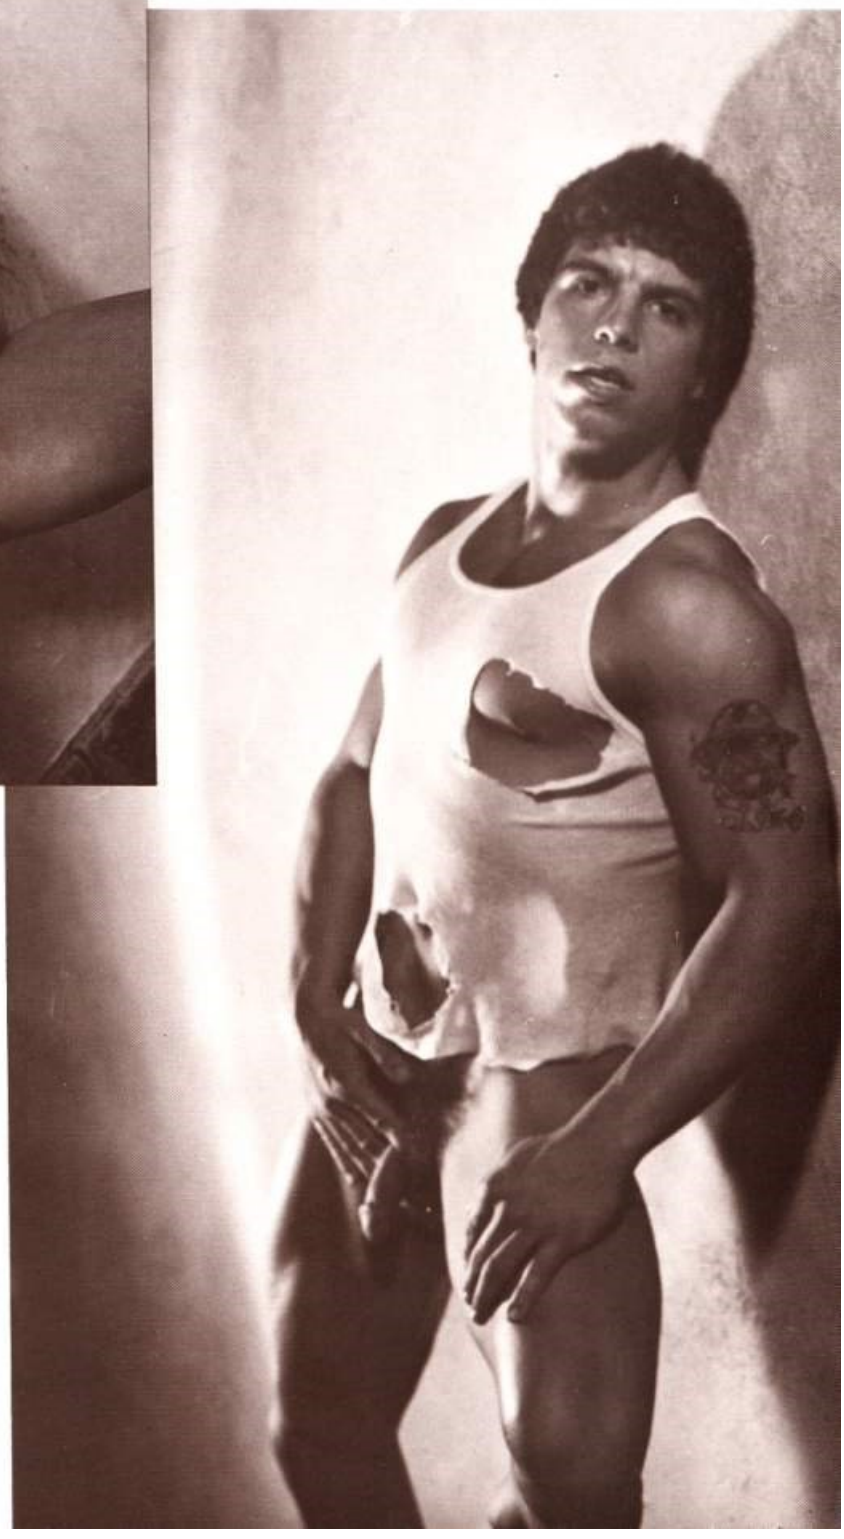












BUZZ

We saw him strolling down Hollywood Blvd. wearing a pair of cut-off levis and a tank top, obviously designed to fit an eight year old child. As we drove by, he looked, we winked and his hand brushed immediately against his crotch. His ear-to-ear grin was proof enough he was ready for action. Before the sun had set, the results of that chance encounter were recorded on film. And yes, the meat is as tasty as it looks. Take our word for it!!
